Dear Siti Badriah,

I am returning to you your article for KONTAKT journal after technical revision and with some corrections made by our native English-speaking editor.

Please adhere to the following protocol:

- Review and accept all of the changes that were made in the document using the MS Word change-tracking feature.
- If you want to reject any changes, note so in a comment and explain why.
- Read the comments made by the editor. Make the changes he has suggested directly in the document if appropriate. Then delete the editor's comments.
- Rephrase any of the parts that have been marked in the comments as unclear or confusing (you must track or highlight these changes so we can see the changes you have made).
- Aside from the rejected changes and areas you have rephrased, the manuscript ought to be completely clean.

Please send me the corrected article by 6 February 2023.

Thank you very much.

Best regards,
